Jamee Harrington, Vice President of People, Culture and Safety, CHRO and Chief of Staff at Rogue Community College, Will Serve on the CUPA-HR Board of Directors

Jamee Harrington, vice president of People, Culture and Safety, CHRO and chief of staff at Rogue Community College, has been selected to serve a three-year term on the board of directors of the College and University Professional Association for Human Resources (CUPA-HR). She will join the board on July 1.

Harrington is an active member of CUPA-HR, where she has held several leadership positions within the association. She served on the Western Region board of directors for three years, including a term as chair-elect in 2024-25. At the national level, she has been a member of the Public Policy and Creating Inclusive Communities committees and currently serves as a Navigator for the CUPA-HR Navigators program. She was also selected to participate in the 2021-22 cohort of the Emerging CUPA-HR Leaders program.

“Jamee is an outstanding higher education leader. We are so fortunate that she will join the board of directors,” said CUPA-HR President and Chief Executive Officer Dr. Andy Brantley.
